

INTERCOLLEGIATE BROADCASTING SYSTEM

In Reply, address:

I. B. S. ENGINEERING OFFICE
31 Gray Street
CAMBRIDGE 38, MASS.

April 5th, 1962

Mr. John Davison, Chairman
Yale Broadcasting Company, Inc.
242-A Yale Station
New Haven, Connecticut

Dear John:

Coach, please send Neal Ormond in for Chuck Conrad.
We got our signals crossed between Washington and Boston.
As I understand it, Neal is going to talk about sports-casting, sports news, department staffing, and whatever else he thinks pertinent.

See you bright and early Saturday morning.

Sincerely yours,

Bill

William Malone
Engineering Manager

wrm/hs
cc: RHC, I 2.24

INTERCOMMITTEE

BROADCASTING

2/1/51

1951 FEB 1

TO THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

FROM THE INTERCOMMITTEE

RE: BROADCASTING

1951 FEB 1

Enclosed for the Board of Directors are two copies of a report of the Intercommittee on the subject of the proposed changes in the bylaws of the National Association of Broadcasters. The report was prepared by the Intercommittee on the subject of the proposed changes in the bylaws of the National Association of Broadcasters. The report was prepared by the Intercommittee on the subject of the proposed changes in the bylaws of the National Association of Broadcasters.

Very respectfully,
[Signature]

1951 FEB 1

1951 FEB 1

1951 FEB 1